

Shanghai Municipal Council.

POLICE FORCE.
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

5th September 1916.

Sir,
General Tsai Ao is at present a patient at the Paulun Hospital, Burkill Road, where he is being attended by Dr. Kreig. He has two rooms, one of which he occupies himself while the other is occupied by eight soldiers who act as his body-guard. They are not in the regulation uniform but wear a sort of livery.

It is reported that Liang Shih Yi is in Shanghai and living at No. 23 Gordon Road, the house of Lieu Yah Sing 刘叶生, a well known Cantonese fantan gambling promoter in the South.

Tuchun Weng Kuo Chang has given instructions for three plotters for the restoration of the monarchy now in custody at the Arsenal to be conveyed to Nanking for trial.

It is reported that the carpenters have decided to go strike from the 23rd instant.

The painters strike is still going on.

Your obedient servant,

William Munro

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
